- You should disclose any information or fact which is likely to affect the acceptance of this insurance
- If you are in doubt whether the information will affect the acceptance of this risk you should disclose it anyway
- If you fail to disclose information or knowingly give false information all cover under this policy may be cancelled
- If any details change after purchase of this insurance please contact us
- You must take reasonable steps to prevent loss, theft or damage to your property
- You must not travel against the advice of a medical practitioner or your public transport provider
- You must not travel with the intention of receiving medical treatment
- You must take all reasonable precautions and practical steps to avoid injury, illness or disease
- In the event of a serious illness or accident which may lead to inpatient treatment you must contact the emergency assistance services who will then assist you
- If you need to make a claim on your policy, you must provide us with the evidence needed to substantiate your loss

When and how do I pay?

The charge for this insurance will be payable, as requested by your Group Policyholder, as part of your booking. In some circumstances, the charge for this insurance may be covered by your Group Policyholder.

When does the cover start and end?

Cover for cancellation starts as soon as you have paid for the policy. All other cover starts when you leave your home to begin your trip. The policy ceases at the end of the declared period of insurance or when you return home, whichever is the earlier.

How do I cancel?

You can withdraw your participation in the Group Policy by contacting the Group Policyholder at the address shown on your statement of insurance.
